Love That Your Sweetheart Really Needs

This is the month of “love!” I want to challenge you, as you prepare to celebrate with us the beginning of Lent on Ash Wednesday, also Valentine’s Day. We will have our Men of the Church Sweetheart Banquet for women that night, along with a sweets and baked goods auction that will help reduce our building debt. But, what is love?

The Scriptures, 1 John 4:7-19, tell us that “God is love.” There are three kinds of love, according the Greek understanding. God created all of these and they are good. However, I want to challenge you to focus on the greatest of these, God’s love, agape love.

First of all, there is phileo love, or brotherly love. This is the kind of love known within a family, like the love of a mother for her children, or of siblings for each other once they’re grown (LOL). This is the kind of love where a spouse can talk about his or her family, but the other spouse should just listen and not agree when it is negative. This leads to the euphemism, “blood is thicker than water.”

Another kind of love is eros love, or erotic love. This is the kind of love that God made to be known between a man and a woman which causes butterflies in the belly and sweat on the hands, and leads to us to be fruitful and multiply upon the earth. This is the kind of love that leads two adults to make a covenant pledge of everlasting love and commitment to one another.

The final kind of love is agape love. I would challenge that this love overwhelms all other kinds of love. This the love that God had for us in that, while we were yet sinners, God loved us so much that He gave His only begotten Son for us. This is unconditional love and is the love described by Paul in 1 Corinthians 13. This kind of love never ends (1 Cor. 13:8a). I want you to read the following text from 1 John 4 to your sweetheart as a Valentine’s Present, for it is better than chocolates and temporary sweets.

“Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.”

MUSIC NOTES

"For God so LOVED the world....."

One thing many of us remember about my father was that he told just about everyone he met that he loved them. He had a way of shaking your hand.....or giving you a hug or maybe a kiss on the cheek!.....looking you in the eye, and making you feel that you were the most important person in the world in that moment. What a wonderful gift he had for people! It's a very special thing to know you are loved.

Valentine's Day is fast approaching as I write this. We will acknowledge those we love with cards and candy and gifts and those three little words "I love you". This can not compare with the love God shows for us, the love He showed us in the supreme gift of Jesus. There are so many songs and hymns inspired by God's love and Jesus' sacrificial love for us: "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling", "What Wondrous Love Is This?", "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go", and my favorite, "Jesus Loves Me".

We love because He first loved us.....even though we don't deserve it. Let's make a point this month to take someone's hand, look them in the eye, and tell them we love them. Happy Valentine's Day! I love you!
